

Aganang Municipality Celebrate the Bravery of Women Traffic Officials

Aganang Local Municipality has today celebrated the bravery of Women Traffic Officials in the municipality, as part of activities to commemorate women's month. Her worship Mayor Cllr Maria Mokobodi applauded the women in Uniform for doing their work on the roads beside intimidation by various drivers who undermine their abilities. In this occasion women Traffic officials from Blouburg, Molemole, Polokwane and Provincial Units were forming part of the campaign to enforce law adherence on the roads.

This was done through a road block conducted in Tibane Cross at Ga-Matlala. Women in uniform together with Aganang Mayor managed to stop 220 vehicles in which more than 32 tickets were issued. The tickets were issued to motorists found not adhering to various road legislation. These range from driving without a license, driving not road worthy vehicles, vehicles without license disks and others. Her worship Cllr Maria Mokobodi applauded these women traffic officials for being able to issue more than 32 tickets. On this campaign women police from Matlala and Mashashane also participated.
