3. FOREWORD BY THE MAYOR

The current term of Council is drawing to a close. As Municipalities we are expected to develop IDP's for the next term of Council. Municipalities remain the corner stone of service delivery and a better life for all.

Once again, as provided for in terms of Sec 34 of Municipal Systems Act no 32 of 2000, the Municipality has developed Draft IDP/budget 2016/17 as a product after intensive engagement with various stakeholders and analysis of the situation on the ground. With this plan we will continue to tar roads, provide free basic services, provide electricity, build crèches, build bridges, improve recreational facilities and ensure continued involvement of Community and community stakeholders in the affairs of the Municipality for inputs and engagements with Communities and Community stakeholders.

This plan is developed in preparation of amalgamation of areas of Aganang Municipality into Molemole, Blouberg and Polokwane respectively. It serves as a road map for this transition and continued, uninterrupted provision of services

We appreciate the role that Communities and Community stakeholders continue to play in giving inputs to this plan. Let us engage with Draft IDP 2016/17 so that it can become a blue print for development and advancing people' power.

5.3. Economic Analysis

5.3.1. Economic Analysis

Aganang Municipality is predominantly rural however it has potential to grow in both primary and secondary economic activities. This refers to both production and manufacturing activities. Currently there are no major economic activities taking place except subsistence initiatives. The municipality has developed and adopted both LED Strategy and LED plan. The LED Strategy identifies agriculture and tourism as the key economic drivers of the Municipality. These areas further are in line with key economic drivers of the economy of Limpopo province as identified by Limpopo Economic Growth Development Plan (LEGDP). However a lot of work still needs to be done to take both agriculture and tourism to another level.

5.3.2. Primary economic activities

The economic activities that take place within the Municipality are mainly agriculture and Community based projects initiatives.

5.3.3. Agricultural activities

Most Communities of Aganang Municipality plough maize and keep livestock like cattle, goats, sheep etc for subsistence. This activity is done in almost every village within the Municipality.

The success of crop farming depends on amount of rain per rainy season.

5.3.4. Community based projects

There are a number of community based projects initiatives that are running within the Municipality. These range from poultry farming, goat and cattle projects, egg production and vegetables production.

5.3.5. Secondary economic activities

There are no major manufacturing activities taking place within the Municipality despite activities of poultry farming, maize farming, brick making, paper production et cetera.

5.3.6. Retail business

The majority of people in Aganang are involved in retail business which becomes source of income for most of the households. However this sector has over time experienced challenges of sustainability. Most of the shop owners have given up resorting to renting of the facilities or closure of their businesses. These challenges have let to the Municipality come up with Walk in 25 model with the view of resuscitating this sector. Since the inception of this model most of the shop owners have reopened. With time this initiative can yield positive results.

5.3.7. Tourism

There are areas of potential within the Municipality with regard to tourism. Areas identified are Matlala game reserve (Mogoshi Mountains), Utjane dam and Ratang Baeng game reserve. A lot of efforts have to be put in order to tap into the potentiality of these areas. The picture below shows some tourist potential at Mogoshi Mountains at Matlala a Thaba.

Mogoshi Mountains in Matlala a Thaba (Ward 16)

5.3.8. Mining

There are no mining activities within the Municipality however explorations are underway to check feasibility of platinum in deposits in the south western part (Ward 10 & 18) and iron ore in the northern part (Ward 03 and 04) of the Municipality.

5.3.9. Job creation

The Municipality annually creates temporary job opportunities through LED, EPWP, CWP and infrastructure delivery. These provide relief to the needy and unemployed. It further provides the requisite skills to those employed.

Development challenges

- Development of tourism potential areas
- Maximization of production and capacity level of primary economic activities within the Municipality
- Enough financial resources to support Community projects initiatives
- Establishment of major manufacturing activities within the municipality.
- Capacity building of LED initiatives
- Establishment of Markets
- Resuscitation and support of retail sector
- Development and enforcement of by-laws

5.3.8. Comparative and Competitive advantages of Municipal Economy

Aganang Municipality although rural has economic potential that, if tapped into, can become competitive. These borders around the following key issues:

- Potential for agriculture (both crop and livestock), tourism and prospects of mining
- Located with the Capricorn District Municipality which is a provincial logistic hub.
- Due to the Municipality's proximity to Polokwane it can become a manufacturing area with Polokwane providing the market.
- Aganang Municipality ,through Road D3390(Gilead road),links Polokwane with Mogalakwena, Lephale and Botswana which provides potential as a corridor(East-West corridor)
- Enough cheap land for secondary economic activities(although most of the land is still in the hands of Traditional Councils)

5.4. Environmental Analysis

The municipality has developed and adopted environmental management plan in order to take up issues of environment as we develop our Communities. In pursuit of sustainable development environmental management is critical to this noble notion. Whenever projects are undertaken within the Municipality environmental impact assessments are conducted to ensure that environmental issues are taken into consideration. This in the main is to ensure sustainable development.

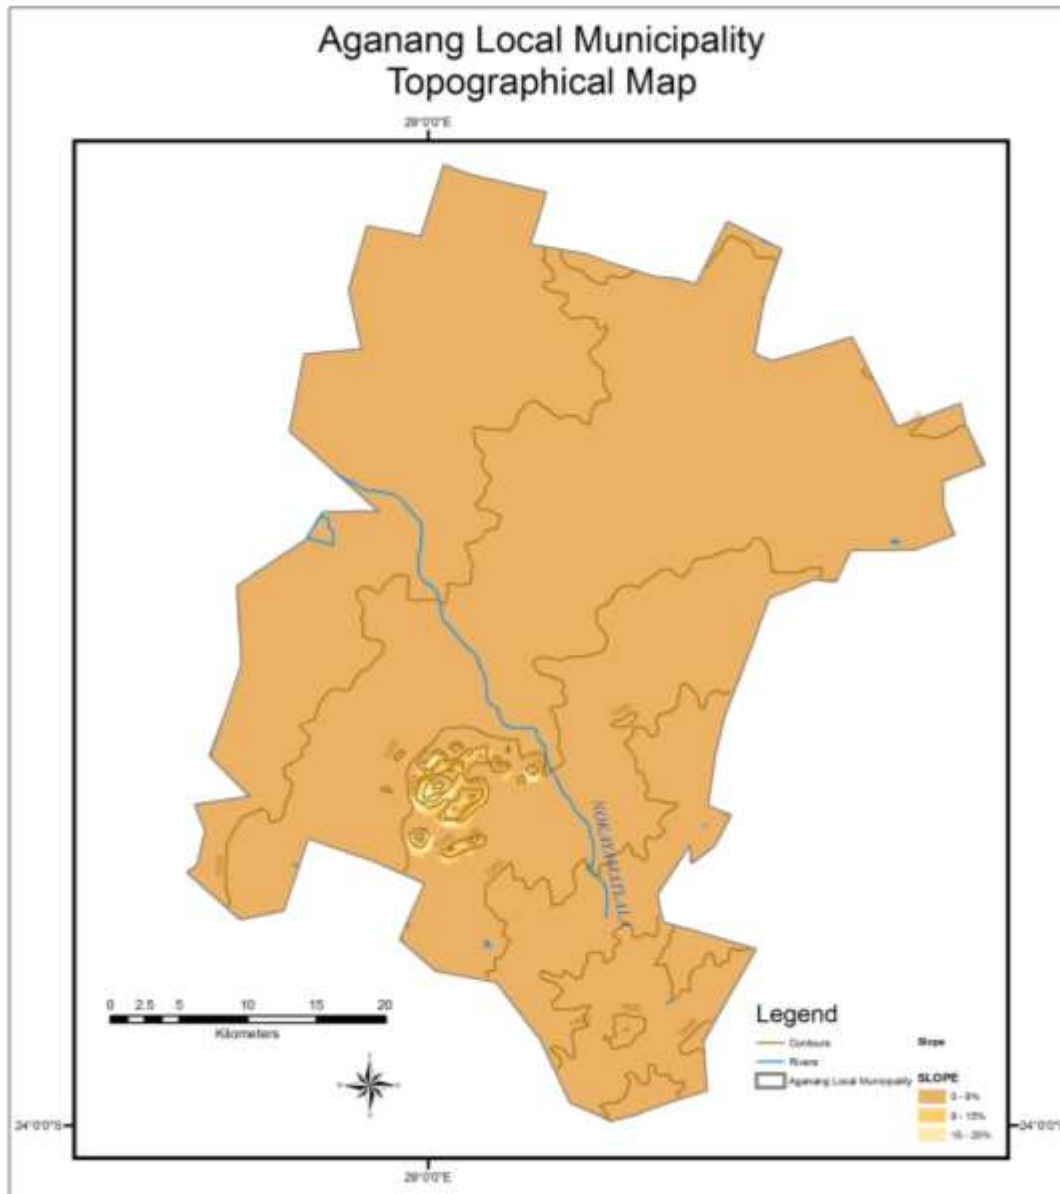

5.4.1. Climate

Aganang area receives summer rainfall with very dry winters. The rainfall falls from September to May with precipitation generally occurring as short, heavy, thundery showers. The Mean Annual Precipitation (MAP) ranges from 454mm per year in the north-western area, and 500mm per year in the south-eastern area (Mucina and Rutherford, 2006). The southern portions are more humid and it becomes more arid towards the northeast.

The mean annual temperature is 18.5⁰C in the north-western area and 16.9⁰C in the south-eastern area. The mean maximum and minimum temperatures are 36.5⁰C and -0.8⁰C in the north-western areas for November and June respectively and 33.2⁰C and 0.6⁰C in the south-eastern areas for October and June respectively.

5.4.2. Topography

The terrain morphology of the area varies considerably with the following identified by ENPAT, 2001 in the area; hills in the southern area; lowlands with mountains to the western side of the Municipal area; strongly undulating plains in the southern area; moderately undulating plains, and; slightly undulating plains which represents the majority of the Municipal area. The terrain types identified are; plains with open high hills or ridges; rolling or irregular plains with high hills or ridges; plains with open low hills or ridges; Level plains with some relief; level plains, and; high hills or ridges. Slopes range from 0-9% on the greater part of the area 9-25% on hills and mountains.

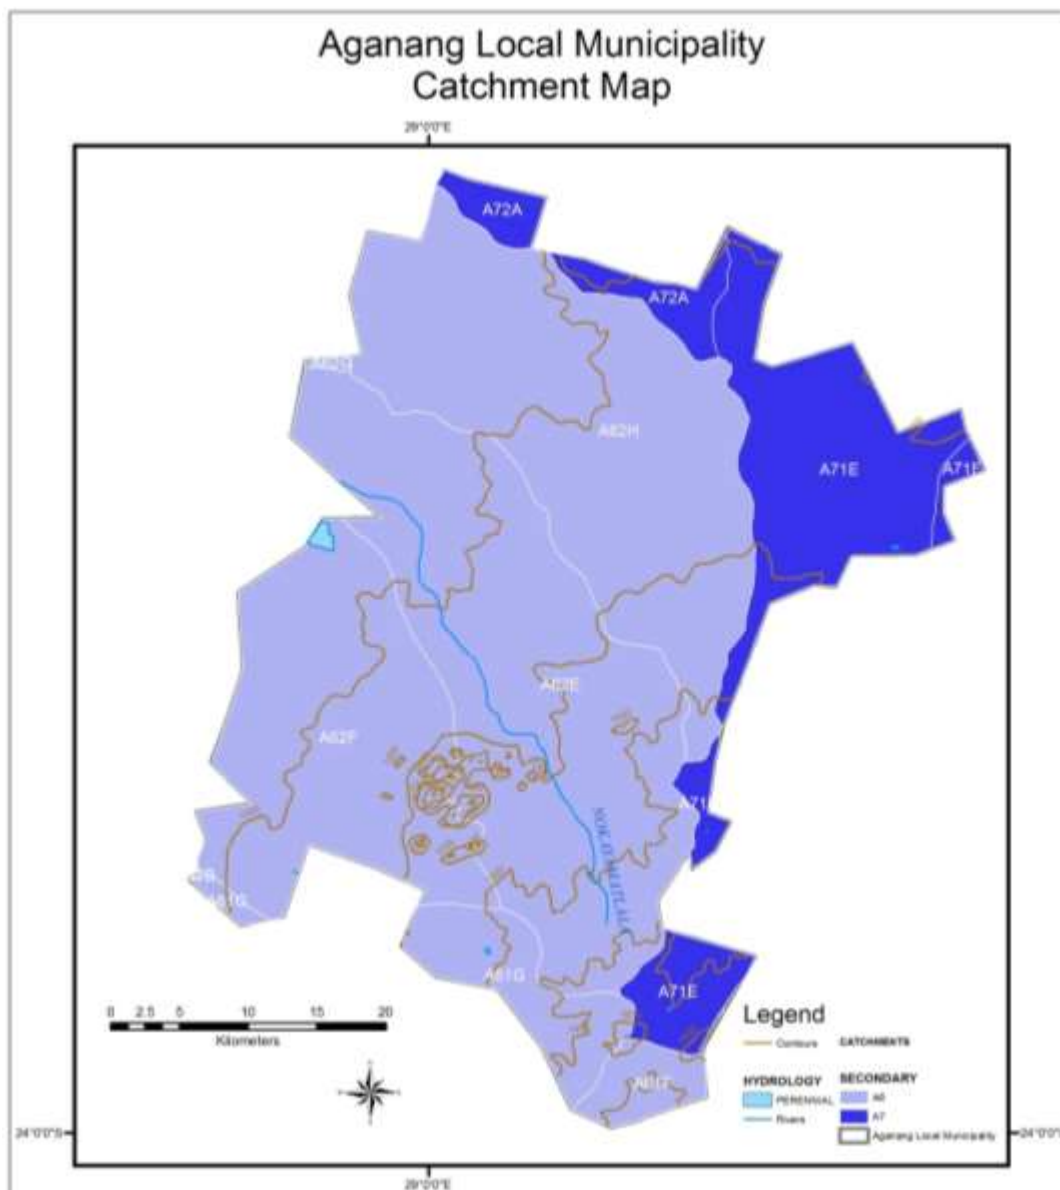

5.4.3. Drainage

The Municipal area falls within 8 quaternary catchment areas which drain northerly towards the Limpopo River system. The quaternary catchment areas are A61F; A61G; A62C; A62E; A62F; A71E; A71F, and A72C. Of these quaternary catchment areas A62E, A62H and A62F are the most represented in the Municipal area (Map 1: Catchment areas map). There are a total of five more prominent seasonal rivers / streams (water courses) flowing through the Municipal area. All of these water courses drain in a northern direction towards the Limpopo River. These water course systems are poorly protected and erosion along the banks is evident.

The Tshipu water course drains into the Natse water course and is situated in the A62H quaternary catchment. The Ga-Mamasonya water course drains through quaternary catchment A72C. The Hout River and Strydomsloop River drains through quaternary catchments A71E and A71F respectively.

5.4.4. Vegetation

According to Acocks (1988), there are six veld types which are represented in the Aganang Municipality. These are the 1) Mixed Bushveld, 2) Springbok Flats Turf Thornveld, 3) Pietersburg Plateau False Grassveld, 4) Sourish Mixed Bushveld, 5) Sour Bushveld, and 6) Arid Sweet Bushveld, veld types.

Two thirds of the area is characterized by the Makhado mixed bushveld (typically defined by the presence of shallow, coarse-textured, sandy soils overlying granite, quartzite, sandstone or shale), small portions of Arid sweet veld and Mamabolo Mountain Bushveld around Mogoshi mountains in Matlala; and one third of the area is Polokwane Plateau Grassland.

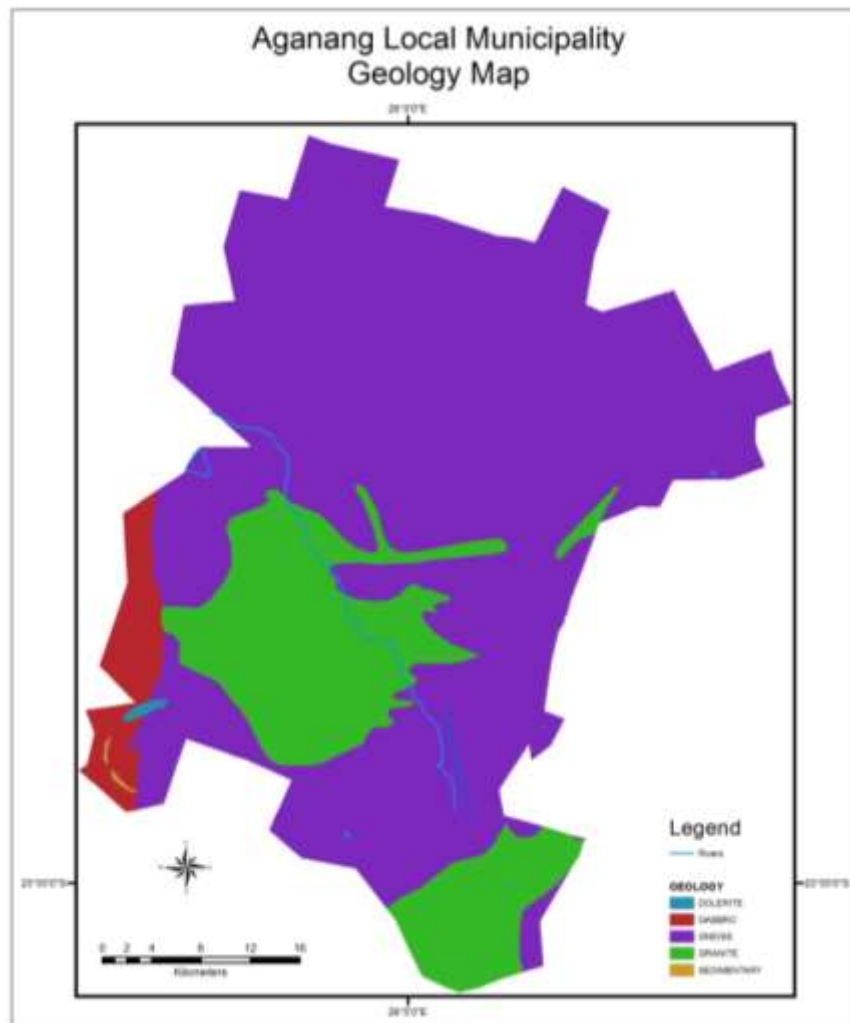

The common trees are the acacia (caffra, eriebola, karro) marula tree, terminalia sp, Euphorbia ingens. The Mamabolo Mountain Bushveld is the most sensitive vegetation type because of higher species diversity, poorly protected and the environment is not disturbed. Vegetation types as described by Acocks are shown in.

5.4.5. Geology

According to the Geological map of the area 2328 Pietersburg, the area covered by Aganang Municipality is predominantly under laid by Leucocratic migmatite and gneiss, grey and pink hornblende-biotite gneiss, grey biotite gneiss, minor muscovite bearing granite, pegmatite and gneiss, Hout River gneiss of the swazian era. In the south west the area is under laid by fine grained grey to pink biotite granite, coarse grained and in places porphyritic of the Matlala granite. In the south east the area is under laid by medium grained porphyritic, grey to pink biotite granite of the Moletsi granite. In the west the area is bordered by magnetite gabbro, gabbro, anorthosite, olivine diorite, magnetite layer of the Rustenburg layered suite, Bushveld complex. shows the simplified geology of the municipality mapped at 1:250,000 scale from the ENPAT dataset.

Geology Map

A regional geological assessment conducted by Africa Geo-Environmental Services (AGES), i.e. Regional Geological Assessment Report, Aganang Municipality, Limpopo Province (Technical Report 2007/02/15/IGTA) made an assessment of the generalized geotechnical character of the area in terms of urban development.

The municipal area was divided into provisional geotechnical classes based on differences in the regional geological, topographical and geotechnical character thereof (Partridge et al, 1993), but excluding those areas falling within any 1:100 year-flood lines (deemed not suitable for development, but still to be determined separately from this investigation, where required).

5.4.6. Geohydrology

According to Groundwater Resources of The Republic of South Africa, Sheet 2, of the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry 1995, the average depth to water level in the area of Aganang Municipality is between 10m and 20m in the north of the area and between 20m and 30m in the south.

According to Groundwater Resources of The Republic of South Africa, Sheet 1, of the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry 1995, the probability of drilling a successful borehole in the area is more than sixty percent and the chances of a successful borehole yielding greater than 2 l/s are at 50%.

The nature of the water bearing aquifer in the area is acidic, intermediate and intrusive and inter granular with the highest yield at 5 l/s. The western part of the Aganang Municipality has yields between 0.5 and 2 l/s. The eastern part has yields between 2 and 5 l/s.

5.4.7. Air Quality

Aganang Local Municipality mainly experiences north easterly winds blowing at a minimum speed of 1.0-1.5m/s to a maximum of 8.0m/s. Winters are generally associated with southerly winds blowing at a rate of 1.5-3.5m/s and summers are associated with north easterly winds blowing at wind speed range of 0.1-1.0m/s.

Air pollution is evidently seen as the smog hanging over the cities. There are different kinds of pollution some visible and others invisible. Generally any substance that people introduce into the atmosphere that has damaging effects on living things and the environment is considered air pollution. The primary air pollutants are carbon monoxide, nitrogen oxides, sulfur oxides, hydrocarbons and particulate matter (both solid and liquid). Motor vehicles are major sources of carbon monoxides (CO), hydrocarbon (HC) and nitrogen oxides (NO_x); whereas fuel combustion in stationery sources produces sulfur oxide (SO₂). Carbon dioxide (CO₂) is mainly from fossil fuels burning and deforestation.

Air quality in Aganang is mainly affected by traffic, that is vehicular emissions; biomass burning from fuel wood burning for cooking and veld burning during the dry season and before planting as people clear the lands, deforestation, manure management, cropland, wetlands and solid waste disposal on land. Aganang Local Municipality currently has no capacity in terms of personnel and equipment to monitor air quality; a function that is being performed by Capricorn District Municipality and will continue until demand calls for local municipality capacitation.

5.4.8. Environmental Challenges

The following are generally environmental problems that are experienced within the Municipality cost by multiple factors. See table below.

Environmental Problem	Major Causes
Land degradation	Many caused by agricultural practices, overgrazing and food paths.
Deforestation	Chopping of firewood
Air pollution	Burning of wastes, and vehicle emissions
Water pollution	Mainly open field dumping
Veld fire	Mainly during winter
Alien plants	In some areas of the municipalities like ward 06 & Mashashane area, specify area where the problem is and name of plants
Illegal Waste dumping	No landfill site, no provision of services

Currently there is no waste collection due to the fact that there is no landfill site. But there are waste collection groups that have been established to take up environmental issues. These environmental groups are central to the pilot waste, cleaning and recycling activities. Municipal rural waste activities are centered around these initiatives.
